NEW YORKER TO PLAY FOR TOP SEVILLAN CLUB C.D.A.D. NERVION

August 2010

After arriving in early August in Sevilla, Spain, New York City native Danny Issroff was picked up by top Sevillan club C.D.A.D. Nervion to compete with during his Youth Year IFX program for the 2010-11 season. Nervion fields three top level youth U19 teams, including one in the prestigious Liga Nacional.

Danny will be living with his host family in Sevilla, and attending a local high school during his upcoming semester.

C.D.A.D. Nervion enjoys over 30 years of history and competes in a strong regional league against other clubs from throughout the state of Andalucia.

YOUTH YEAR IFX PLAYERS CONVENE AT NUREMBERG TRAINING CAMP

Youth Year IFX players spent 2 weeks in Nuremberg, Germany preparing for their year ahead. The 2 week long orientation included intensive German language sessions each morning, training each morning led by DFB trainer Bernd Winter, and training in the evenings with Bayernliga club SG Quelle Fürth whose youth compete in the top Bavarian division.

BRAZILIAN STANDOUT NICOLAU MONTEIRO SELECTED FOR BERLIN POWERHOUSE CLUB HERTHA ZEHLENDORF

Fielding two U-19 teams with one in the youth Bundesliga, Hertha is known nationwide to produce some of Germany's top youth talent. Rio native Monteiro's glistening technique has earned him a spot with the Hertha U-19s, although his fate to play for the 1st or 2nd team is yet to be determined.

PRO IFX NEWS

PRO IFX YEAR LONG PLAYER, ADAM MISIRLY SIGNS WITH BAYERNLIGA CLUB FSV ERLANGEN BRUCK

After successful trials with SG Quelle Fürth and FSV Erlangen Bruck during the Pro IFX summer session, Adam Misirly, an Indiana native, weighed his offers from both Bavarian clubs. After careful consideration, Misirly decided with IFX guidance to sign for Erlangen Bruck, where he will be first rostered with their reserves in the Landesliga division.

At 6'1" and 20 years of age, Misirly will be fighting for a starting position most likely in a defensive role.

Before departing for Germany in June, Misirly spent the last season playing for Gruen-Weiss Soccer Club of Illinois, a strong German American Amateur club. But now he has his sights set on playing professionally in Germany and is in a good place to move in that direction. Misirly is a well rounded player with a strong work ethic. It will be an important season for his development and will give him a tremendous opportunity for exposure within the German leagues.
