HAVE YOU EVER DREAMED OF PLAYING WITH AN INTERNATIONAL CLUB? NOW IS YOUR CHANCE!

IFX Organization

International Fútbol X-Change is an international organization providing total immersion soccer programs in a variety of overseas destinations. Our programs enable competitive youth and adult soccer players the opportunity to play and compete with highly competitive foreign clubs.

Our programs include the Pro IFX for professionals, amateurs, and collegiate players; the Youth Year IFX, a high-school study abroad program combined with competition within a European youth team; and the Youth Summer IFX, a short-term total immersion program providing youths the experience of playing with a European club.

Pro International Fútbol X-Change

Our oldest program, the Pro International Fútbol X-Change, gives players over the age of 18 the opportunity to experience football and life in another country. IFX places each player individually among one of our partner foreign club teams to train with for a period of 30 days.

The training period is an opportunity for players to showcase their talent with the host club. All of our partner clubs seriously consider IFX players as prospective contracted players for their teams. If the club and IFX player wish to agree upon a future playing arrangement, IFX will then offer optional representation services to the player through our FIFA agent and attorney partners.

Players are immersed in a foreign culture, possibly amidst a new language, with players from all corners of the globe. It is an unforgettable life experience, providing a new perspective on the different walks of life that all share a passion for the same beautiful game.

Destinations

IFX has multiple clubs in varying divisions in several international destinations including:

BADEN-WÜRTTEMBERG, GERMANY
BAYERN, GERMANY
